JAKARTA, 18 JULY 2024 — Excitement soars as the Bali International Airshow 2024 unveils activities and ticket prices for its Public Day. Marking the long-awaited return of international airshows in Indonesia after nearly three decades, the Bali International Airshow is set to thrill aviation enthusiasts and families with a roster of exciting activities.

The Bali International Airshow will be open to the public who have bought tickets for its Public Day, which will take place on the last day of the event, Saturday, 21 September 2024. Ticket holders can expect to see more than 30 military and commercial aircraft and helicopters up close on static displays, and experience the exhilarating aerial performances from the flying displays held four times per day throughout the event and during the Public Day.

Furthermore, activities such as photo competitions, aviation-themed movie screenings, interactive photo booths, meet-the-pilot sessions, and aviation-themed arts and crafts will also be organised to entertain visitors during opening hours from 09.00 - 17.00 WITA. Expect more details of the various activities to be announced in the upcoming weeks leading up to the Airshow.

"The Bali International Airshow 2024 is more than just an event; it's a celebration of Indonesia's growing influence in the aviation and aerospace sectors. We're excited to showcase the nation's innovative capabilities and make them accessible to the public during the Airshow," said Luhut Binsar Pandjaitan, Coordinating Minister of Maritime and Investment Affairs.
